My Grandmother

She never owned a pair of pants.

She sang in the choir.

She played church hymns for me when I visited.

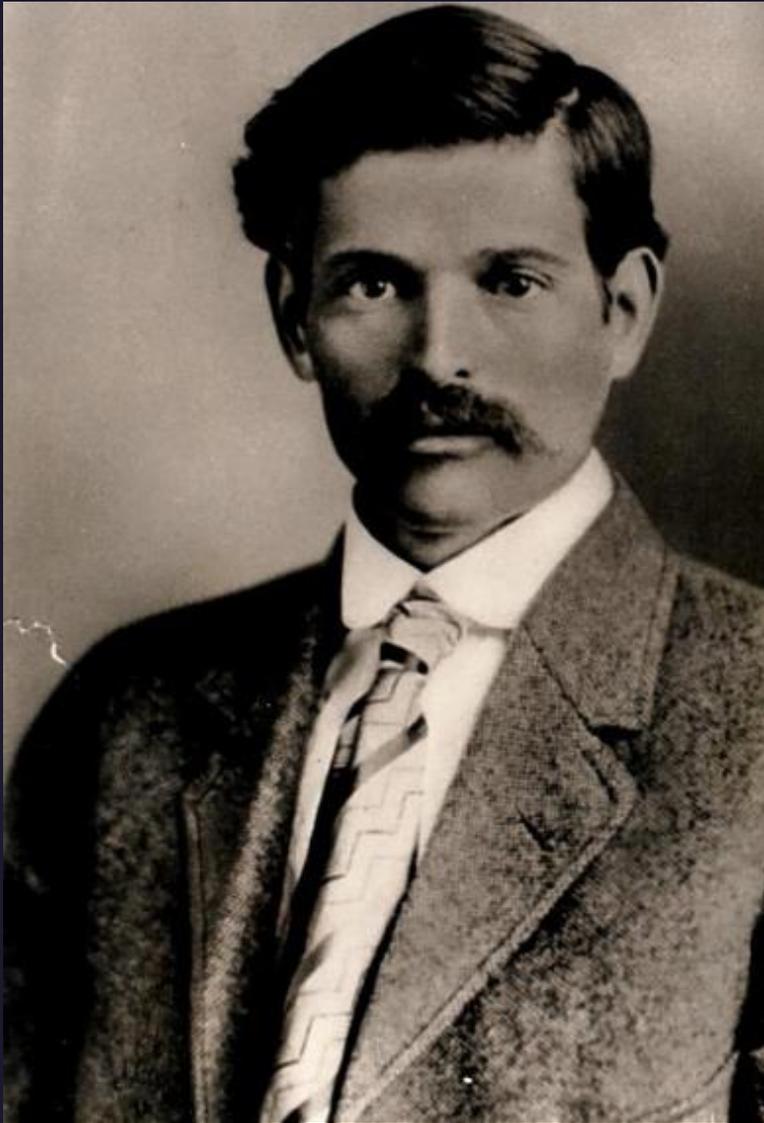

She knew things about us, through the spirit.

Even in advanced years, she would serve people.

"The Convention ... passed an ordinance July 17, 1775, for raising two regiments of regulars and for organizing the militia. The first regiment was to consist of 544 rank and file, with a colonel, lieutenant-colonel, major, 8 captains, 16 lieutenants, and 8 ensigns; and the second of 476 rank and file, with seven companies and corresponding officers. The field officers were appointed by the Convention - Patrick Henry to command the first regiment, and Colonel Woodford the second. The companies were to consist of 68 men each, to be enlisted in districts, and to serve one year. ... The company officers were appointed by the members of the Convention from the district.

"The whole state was divided into military districts, and the militia were ordered to be embodied as minute-men. ... Each district was to raise a battalion of 500 men, rank and file, from the age of 16 to that of 50, to be divided into ten companies of 50 men each. The officers were to be appointed by committees, selected by the various county committees. The battalion was required to be kept in training at some convenient place for twelve days, twice a year; and the

James A. Tucker To the Honorable T. J. Greer, Probate Judge of said county--- The humble petition of James A. Tucker, respectfully showeth that his son, George A. Tucker, late of the county and state aforesaid, departed this life on the eleventh day of November A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty, possessed of considerable real and personal estate and leaving him surviving, his widow, Annie Tucker, and his son Epps Tucker, an infant, then about one years old; that letters of administration upon all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits that were of the said George A. Tucker are granted by the Ordinary of Union District unto the said Annie Tucker, and that no guardian has ever been appointed for the said Epps Tucker. Your petition further shows that the said Annie Tucker, since the death of the said George A. Tucker, has intermarried with one Dr. William F. Holmes, who contemplates removing at an early period to Barnwell County in this state.

Your Petitioner further shows, that in consequence of the emancipation of the slaves, the value of the personal estate of the said George A. Tucker has been greatly reduced, not amounting, as is supposed to more than dollars. Your Petitioner further shows that the said Epps Tucker from his tender years is wholly unable to take charge of, and manage his interest in the estate of his father, the said George A. Tucker deceased, that it is absolutely necessary for his rights in the premises to be protected, and that his mother and step-father are willing for your Petitioner to act as guardian for the said Epps Tucker.(as appear___ by the letter of Dr. W. F. Holmes hereto attached). Wherefore your Petitioner humbly prays that he be appointed guardian of the person and property of the said Epps Tucker, with the usual powers as such, and that it may be referred to the Clerk of this Court as to ascertain and report the gross value of the estate of the said Epps Tucker and as to the fitness of your Petitioner to be appointed the guardian of the said Epps Tucker. And your Petitioner will ever pray as duty bound. James A. Tucker

I had proven George Epps Tucker was the son of George Anderson Tucker and Annie Sanders Tucker, my 3rd great grandparents.

James Anderson Tucker (1801 - 1885) was the son of Joseph Tucker (1785 - 1827), my 5th great grandparent, who was born in Virginia and died in Union County, South Carolina.

I have the will of George Epps Tucker. I have looked at it many times. He is not very far from my mind. I can feel his presence. I know he helps me just like my other ancestors.

I always offer to give presentations

Fast Forward to February 2020

I am going to share something with you now that I hope will become a doorway to your own research. Last year in February of 2020, I had to travel from Fayetteville, NC to Union, South Carolina for an African American presentation at the library, HOME | UCLS \(unionlibrary.org\), sponsored by Rose Hill Plantation. A descendant of the Tucker's who is not black came to the presentation.

He sent me photos of the event that he had taken. I was so happy.

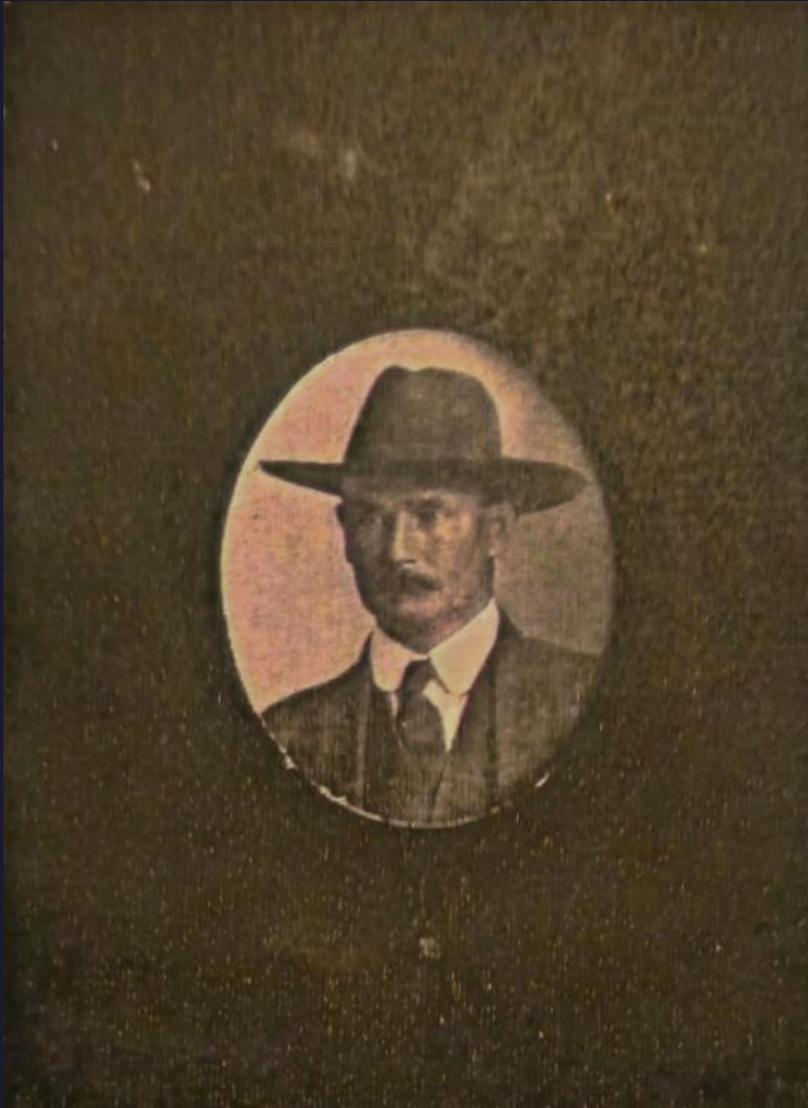

Then someone else reached out to me on Facebook. He was friends with the Tucker descendant. He was from the same area as George Epps Tucker. We became Facebook friends.

It turns out that he had grown up in George Epps Tucker's home. I was so excited.

His family was mentioned in George's will, but that was not all.

He sent to me some of the things that belonged to George. When the items arrived, tears filled my eyes. I felt as if I had been given the items by George himself.

George Epps Tucker

I was completely humbled by Thomas A. Stokes II and the pieces of history that he mailed to me.

March 14, 2020, I received the letter he sent to me with items documenting George Epps Tucker (1859-1927) that he had access to.

Grandparents of George Epps
Tucker

The James & Anna Tucker home, my 4th great grandparents. From Thomas A. Stokes II

Epps owned a store in Carlisle, SC. This was his letterhead. On January 15th, 1907 he wrote Mr. Arthur. He had just returned from Chester, SC. He received a letter from Mr. Arthur and sent a check to pay for corn he had purchased.

He had checked on prices for corn in Chester. Everybody says he was charged too much for the corn. He has not found a man that has payed as much as he was charged. So, he asks for a rebate. Mr. Arthur had responded on the bottom of the letter that he had not overcharged him.

From Thomas A. Stokes II

I felt much like Epps gave me these things knowing I would follow the clues. He knows that I did not have much when I started researching my family. I have discovered a great deal since 1985.

I have discovered enough for me to see the effects of my daughter knowing and sharing. It's hard to believe it, but the finds that I am coming across after all these years have the potential of helping me learn more about my ancestry.

I am so deeply grateful to Thomas for sharing.
